

Fiona Penhallurick

Independent Complaints Commissioner

Fiona has over 20 years' experience as a senior executive, director and corporate lawyer.

She is an accredited civil and commercial mediator.

Fiona has held Senior Management positions in large corporate organisations (including Tarmac, National Grid and GEC) and has worked on many large infrastructure projects spanning the construction, utility and energy sectors. She was part of the team that obtained the first ever Development Consent Order.